Piano for sale
Latin Tutor

Hello, I live on Skyline Drive and am selling a Black U1 Yamaha Piano from the '70s in great condition. It's in tune, plays great, looks good cosmetically, and has a very nice tone. I thought someone in the Canyon might have some little ones ready for piano lessons. The price is $2500, which is a very good deal for a U1 in this condition. Please email me for pictures.

Tutor:

Looking for a Latin tutor? Your search stops here! The best teaching is all about tailoring to the individual needs of the student, and I'm here to help. As an alumna of Wesleyan University and the Intercollegiate Center for Classical Studies in Rome, I have 8 years' experience tutoring Latin and 15+ years tutoring subjects of all kinds. Subjects have included Spanish, Algebra and Pre-Calculus, Writing, SAT Prep, U.S. History and many more. I'm well-versed to handle all kinds of tutoring needs for students young and old. My goal is for every student to look forward to lessons that are fun, varied, and educational in surprising ways.

If you've never studied Latin before, I can help you find your footing. Learning Latin is endlessly inspiring, as Latin roots and Classical Culture play a big role in everyday American life. I teach according to each student's individual needs. Through a combination of mythology, short drills (with hints when you need them) and easy analogies for Latin words and concepts, anyone can learn (and love) Latin.

Impress your friends, teachers and employers! Latin is also a great choice for students who need that pesky mandatory language credit. Give Latin a try and discover how many fascinating things the old world can teach you. I'm happy to answer any personalized questions before we get started. Let me know what's on your mind!
